

SINGLE MOTHERS OF COLOR, INC.
"Building Strong Families, One Mother at a Time."

SHARING & CARING September/October 2007

"Reading, Writing, Arithmetic"

swift this year and our children are back to school. The best thing you can do for your children is to make sure education is possible. Whether it's a public school or a private school, consider yourself engaged in their learning environment. For younger children, reading to them helps improve their understanding, so, it allows us to read out loud, exercise our reading muscles, which may have not been used in quite some time.

For older children, share with them that you are their biggest fan. Encourage them to be successful in school. Share it with them of